Licensing is available on a retroactive basis for certain practitioners who submit applications before March, 1974.

Report to Legislature on Nurse Practitioners

The Advisory Committee on Physician's Assistant and Nurse Practitioner Programs of the Board of Medical Examiners has submitted a report to the California Legislature containing suggestions and recommendations for legislation relating to the nurse practitioner program.

The report outlines general definition and supervision requirements for nurse practitioners. It also is concerned with the following aspects of the program: functional description of various nurse practitioner classifications, settings, utilization, education and training requirements.

The advisory committee report defines a nurse practitioner as a licensed nurse with educational knowledge and skills, who will provide direct patient care in consultation with a licensed physician or surgeon.

Five classifications of nurse practitioner are recommended in the document. Classification will depend on the educational training and experience of the applicant. All classifications require that the nurse practitioner be under the direction and supervision of a physician. Such direction requires that the physician be immediately available for consultation either personally or by telephone.

The legislature may recommend a permanent certification program for nurse practitioners in California during this session.

Message from the President

This past year was a productive one for medicine and for the Board of Medical Examiners. Highlights of Board activities during 1973 include emergence of the physicians assistant program and the report to the State Legislature on the role of nurse practitioners.

During 1974, we'll continue to look for solutions to problems of informed consent and the practice of acupuncture. We hope to investigate continuing education as a requirement for re-licensure in California, and study the possibility of licensing by medical specialty.

The increasing number of complaints against physicians and surgeons by the public merits extensive investigation.

As the President of your Board, I look forward to serving you, as well as the public, by maintaining the high standards that have prevailed throughout the past in our application, licensing, examination and disciplinary procedures.

H. E. Wilkins, M.D.
President

Address Changes

The Board reminds all licensees that the law requires physicians and surgeons to notify the Board of Medical Examiners of any change in address. Approximately 12 per cent of the physicians addresses on file at the Board office are incorrect.

You should notify the Board of any change in address by putting your name and new address on a postcard or piece of paper and send it to: State Board of Medical Examiners, 1020 N Street, Sacramento, California 95814.
