Anaheim Physician Surrenders License to Practice Medicine

SACRAMENTO – The Medical Board has adopted the stipulated surrender of Clyde M. Ikuta’s license to practice medicine in the state of California, effective January 19, 2017. “The Medical Board’s primary mission is public protection and this action reflects the Board’s ongoing commitment to that mission,” said the Board’s executive director Kimberly Kirchmeyer.

In summary, on July 1, 2016, an Accusation was filed against Ikuta. The Accusation was based on the care and treatment provided to three separate patients. The Accusation contained seven causes of discipline including gross negligence, repeated negligent acts, prescribing controlled substances without prior examinations, and failure to maintain adequate and accurate records. Documents pertaining to these actions can be found here. Ikuta also received a public reprimand on May 18, 1998.

The Medical Board encourages individuals to be informed patients and Check Up On Your Doctor’s License at www.mbc.ca.gov or call (800) 633-2322.

The mission of the Medical Board of California is to protect health care consumers through the proper licensing and regulation of physicians and surgeons and certain allied health care professions and through the vigorous, objective enforcement of the Medical Practice Act, and to promote access to quality medical care through the Board’s licensing and regulatory functions.

If you have a question or complaint about the health care you are receiving, the Board encourages you to visit its website at www.mbc.ca.gov or call (800) 633-2322.
